Who do we speak to?

- Giving you more information about the issue
- Help you learn about lobbying
- Telling you the groups and the people to lobby
- Sharing their resources, posters, DVD's etc
- Giving ideas about who else can help you
- Working with you – there are strength in numbers

Have a look at the list on the next page for ideas about who could help you to lobby.

Asking for Help

Once you have picked people who might be able to help you lobby you need to contact them. You can ring, email or send a letter. The things you could say include:

- Telling them about the issue you want to work on and why
- Asking them if they have any ideas or information they could share with you
- Inviting them to come and talk at one of your meetings
- Asking them what work they are doing to help people with disabilities get their rights
- Asking them if they know who else could help you
- Finding out what they think of your lobbying ideas
