What is the Rise & Shine Parent Leadership Program?

Parents impacted by ACS become powerful leaders to make change.

Through Rise & Shine, you can:

- Build a strong foundation to become an advocate and a leader in your community;
- Develop writing and public speaking skills;
- Shadow parent advocates and participate in 10 hours of interactive field learning;
- Reflect on experiences and build a peer-to-peer support network; and
- Engage with expert speakers on child welfare history and law, parent advocacy, domestic violence, trauma, toxic stress and self-care.

Program details:

- Program runs 18 weeks and meets for 3 hours/3 times a week.
- Certificate and stipend are provided upon completion.
- Metro cards and light refreshments are provided throughout the program.
- Child care is not provided.
